

File retention. The files on your matter are maintained generally in digital format as we are a paperless office to the extent feasible. You may request a digital copy of your file, or a portion, at any time during our engagement or during the file retention period. We generally retain files for five years after a matter is concluded and the file is closed in our system (but it may be retained longer).